The information to the left is a snapshot of your CLE compliance. Keep in mind that the compliance year closes on December 31 and compliance is established after that date.

If you have at least 3 hours dual credit, plus 12 hours general credit, and do not owe any fees, you have completed the requirements for the year and compliance will be established after the first of the year.

Any changes made to your account, including submitting unpaid attendance, could affect your compliance. All reported attendance must be paid or declined to ensure compliance.

Information is current as of yesterday. Any change made to your account including payments and attendance will be available online tomorrow. Be sure to add info@CLE.TNCourts.gov to your safe senders list to ensure communication from the Commission is delivered.
